RECRUITMENT - PROCESS

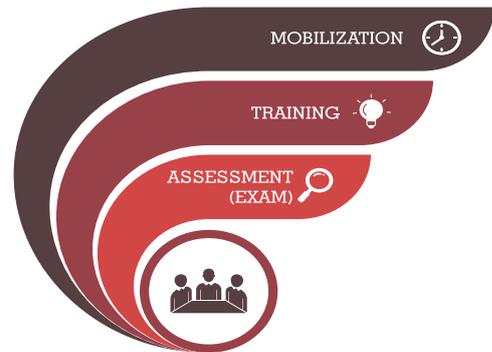

Innovation works in close liaison with the National Skills Development Corporation (NSDC) and Ministry of Rural Development (MORD).

We have partnered with the Central and State government, a number of leading NGOs and many large private organizations to contribute and be a positive player towards the national goal of creating a skilled workforce.

We aim to provide a platform to the underprivileged and marginalized youth by educating them and aligning their skill sets with growing employment opportunities available thanks to an expanding economy, and thus contributing to the nation's overall growth.

Our customized classroom training programs, supervision and monitoring infrastructure, placement assistance, excellent customer relations and emphasis on being proactive are our guiding tools. We believe in building trust with students, colleagues and the surrounding community.
